shown as to whether Senator Ingalls repented of the speech he made two weeks ago, whether he was going to apologize for it, or was going to say anything more about it, and the Senator had been asked so many questions on the subject, that last Thursday, when he received an open letter from Col. Finley Anderson calling for a full retraction and apology, he let it be known that he would reply to Col. Anderson in an open letter which would be given to the press for publication last Sunday. Advance notices were printed all over the country with wise speculations as to what Senator Ingalls would say. When the time came the Senator kept his promise and handed to the press a copy of his letter with authority to publish it. The letter in full is as follows:

"WASHINGTON, D. C. Mar. 17, '88. Col. Finley Anderson, New York: SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 14th Respectfully Yours, JOHN J. INGALLS."

At no other season is the body so much in need of, or so susceptible to the benefit to be derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla, as now. The impoverished condition of the blood, the weakening effects of the long, cold winter, the lost appetite, and that tired feeting, all make a good spring medicine absolutely necessary. Try Hood's Sarsaparilla and you will be convinced that it is the ideal spring medicine.
